

Our PRO in the Know promo is happening now!

We encourage you to attend a PRO training at your local distributor. Whether you're a first-timer or are looking for a refresher, you're guaranteed to learn how Lutron solutions will better help you meet the needs of your customers.

Bring new employees with you!

Take advantage of giveaways and special pricing, as well as the opportunity to receive Lutron Smart Home Product Vouchers (at participating distributors), which your customers can use to redeem FREE product—helping drive sales for you.

Grow your business. Expand your expertise.
And increase your profits, with training by Lutron.

Don't miss out! Contact your local distributor for more information.
